

9. Summary, Conclusion and Suggestions

- Vedas mark out as emblems of divinity for all the natural resources.
- Vedas consider existence of nature and humans for mutual benefit and welfare.
- Many major companies around the world have realized the mistakes and their awareness has resulted in increased Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) seen in global businesses.

A : Findings

➤ Vedic Pundit respondents

- All the 10 respondents cite the following by way of justification of the relevance of Vedic General Management Principles to the present day global business.
- All the 10 respondents cite the commonality between the Veda's and Modern Business Management Principles: Vedic Management Principles recommend adoption of good practices from everywhere as long as they are oriented towards the welfare of the individual, society and they suggest learning from global best practices.