

7. Vedic Perception of Social Responsibilities and Corporate Governance

- This chapter analyzes the Vedic perception of social responsibilities and corporate governance in the light of what the present day business practices are.
- This constitutes of the fourth objective of the study.

Justification that the Vedas perceive CSR, Corporate Governance, Value System and Ethical Practices the way the present day Businesses do

Justification	Vedic Pundits	Vedic Trainers	Corporate Managers
Vedas insist that neighbors and foreigners should be treated fairly	10/10	25/25	25/25
They state that natural resources should be revered	10/10	25/25	25/25
They state that one should take care of animals	10/10	21/25	25/25
They point out that preyaṣ leads human beings to misuse and abuse environment	10/10	25/25	25/25
They believe that one should not destroy trees	10/10	25/25	25/25