

B : Conclusion

- The principles and tenants drawn from the four Veda's by the individuals in our country are based on Sanathana Dharma and have been practicing the same to reap rich personal excellence
- Adhering to the Vedic Principles enable the individuals to achieve inner peace, harmony and spiritual well-being.
- The research work effectively captured these phenomenon by eliciting strategic information from the three categories of respondents.

Conclusion

- Conclusions are inferences drawn from the findings and relate to hypothesis, they are answers to research questions and the statement of acceptance.